Working Together

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

Shop At Your Local Stores! This has been, and still is, the theme of the many merchants who have done their best to provide the area with needed items. Through all the changes and challenges, they have worked to maintain not only their businesses but also the special service that only a local, hometown store can provide.

There was no difference in that theme in the 1930s. What was different was that it was the time of the Great Depression, a time that was perhaps a little easier for those in the rural areas, but still had a devastating effect on everything related to daily life. It was a time that emphasized simplicity and thrift. By December of 1933, the 21st Amendment repealing the 18th Amendment, was ratified ending Prohibition and President Franklin D. Roosevelt had begun the 'New Deal', a vast coverage of programs and reforms to lessen the severe financial distress and widespread unemployment.

The local merchants did their part during those times not only to promote their businesses but to help with the economy of the area by offering a sales campaign in December of 1933. This was sponsored by what was then called the Merchants' Committee.

The promotion was advertised as offering $400 in cash prizes. Twenty-eight local businessmen joined in offering a coupon with every twenty-five cent cash purchase or payment on account between November 24th and December 23rd. Each customer meeting these requirements was to fill out the coupons with their full name and address and deposit them in the box provided by each participating store.

The $400 was to be divided into ten cash prizes: First Prize of $200; Second Prize of $100; Third Prize of $50; three prizes of $10 each and four prizes of $5 each. Prize winners had to reside in the Richfield trading area. It was stated that the determination of the winners of the respective prizes would be done publicly under the supervision of trustworthy judges. The Merchants' Committee emphasized the fact that the respective winners would receive checks for their prizes, regardless of their presence at the drawing.

Who were the merchants and businessmen who participated, guaranteeing that they were prepared to sell quality merchandise at attractive prices? They included: Myron Jordan, Simmons Garage, Buchanan Hardware Co., Harry W. Smith, Richfield Garage Inc., Walter & Rankin, George H. Hunt, Ainslie Buck, Sulphur Springs Beauty Shop, Henry Frink, M. Tuller & Son, Ehrman's Drugstore, Mrs. L. Barker, J.D. Ibbotson Co, E.D. Conklin & Son, C. E. Goodale Co., I.G.A. Store, Victory Chain, Inc., W. C. Palmer, S. S. Kinne, Frank Nassar, John Abramski, H. E. Schooley & Co., Chase Mill, I. L. Richer Co, R. W. Armstrong, West's Electric and George D. Caney.

It was announced that three prominent men of the village would be in charge of awarding the prizes. They were Charles B. Ostrander, George D. Caney and Walter Rankin. The prizes were to be awarded at the Richfield Garage, Inc., on Main Street at eight o'clock on December 23rd. One of the rules of the campaign was that no member of the immediate family of any participating merchant could enter. The place for announcing the winners was chosen because it could accommodate a large group of people and was heated.

On the evening of December 23rd, after all of the coupons were

Three Named As Judges

Prominent Richfield Springs Men Will Be in Charge When $400 in Cash Is Given Away Saturday Night, December 23rd

Charles B. Ostrander, George D. Caney and Walter Rankin will be the judges when the Merchants' Prizes amounting to $400 are awarded at the Richfield Garage, Inc., Main Street, Richfield Springs, at eight o'clock Saturday evening, December 23rd. The Merchants' Committee is to be congratulated on this selection of judges to officiate at the grand windup of the Sales Campaign. One of the rules of the campaign is that no member of the immediate family of any participating merchant is eligible to win a prize. The big rush will be on during the nine shopping days remaining and the merchants of Richfield Springs are prepared to meet it satisfactorily. Write your full name and address on every coupon. Deposit coupons in boxes available in all stores. Remember, there are ten cash prizes. First Prize of $200, second prize of $100, a third of $50, three prizes of $10 each and four prizes of $5 each. If you win a prize you will receive it, whether present Saturday night, December 23rd, or not.

thoroughly mixed together, the judges began to pull the names of the winners. They were: Miss Elizabeth Slocum, Richfield Springs $200; Charles Mullen, Richfield Springs $100; Michael Leltnick, Millers Mills $50. The three prizes of $10 each went to Mrs. Russell Bloomfield, Ellis

Smith and Wallace Starr, all of Richfield Springs. The four $5 prizes went to: David Wickham of Fly Creek; V. C. Abbot of South Columbia; and Miss Laura Osterhaut and Mrs. Rhoda Wolcott of Richfield Springs. Thanks was given to the Merchants' Committee for the manner in which the campaign was conducted and many favorable comments were made as to the success of their effort.

It should be noted that the Merchants' Committee was the forerunner of an organization that continues to work for the betterment of all by working together with the merchants and all residents who are interested in promoting the good of our area - the Chamber of Commerce.

The Richfield Springs Area Chamber of Commerce registered in 1955 with the New York State Department of State as a not-for-profit corporation. There were no available records to disclose when it was first organized but the filing papers listed that there was a history of over seventy years which would include that time of the Merchants' Committee.

The purpose of the Chamber is stated as fostering trade and commerce; promotion and enlargement of a friendly exchange among business people; promotion of the commercial, industrial and agricultural welfare of the trade area and to make recommendations for the improvement of facilities and opportunities of trade in and about the Richfield Springs area.

With the support of the community, the Chamber continues to be dedicated to actively promoting and preserving Richfield Springs and the surrounding area which is so rich with history, beauty and opportunity.

New Resource available at Cooperstown Farmers' Market

[Cooperstown, NY] – The Cooperstown Farmers' Market, a program of Otsego 2000, has FreshConnect Emergency Response checks available to anyone who identifies as food insecure, or who meets certain income levels. The New York State program provides $20 each week in vouchers to spend on SNAP-eligible food from the Market, including produce, meat, eggs, cheese, bread, and pantry staples.

The program runs through the end of December (or while supplies last, whichever is sooner), and FreshConnect checks must be redeemed in 2025. The last Cooperstown Farmers' Market in 2025 is December 27.
The Market, which is located at 101 Main Street in Pioneer Alley in Cooperstown, is open Saturdays year-round from 9 am to 2 pm. There will also be a special Holiday Farmers' Market on Tuesday, December 23 from 4 pm to 7 pm.

This new program is just one of several food access initiatives available at the Cooperstown Farmers' Market.
The Market accepts SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program), and through two partnerships, a $20 SNAP spend is matched by the Cooperstown Lions Club SNAP Match program, and also by New York Field and Fork Network's Double Up Food Bucks program.

"We say $20 equals $60 because a $20 SNAP spend results in $60 worth of local food from the Market," says Peg Odell, program and communications manager at Otsego 2000. "Now with the new emergency FreshConnect checks, $20 can equal $80." She said that people do not need to be signed up for SNAP or spend SNAP at the Market to receive the FreshConnect checks.
Anyone interested in getting the checks should come by the Farmers' Market on Saturdays and ask for the Market Manager.

Otsego 2000 also partners with the Cooperstown Food Pantry, which gives their clients $40 in vouchers to spend at the Farmers' Market each month.

"All these programs help neighbors in need buy more local food, provide local farmers with more income, and keep more money in the local economy," said Odell. "We are on track this year to have more than $40,000 in local food provided through these food-access initiatives."

Farmers Market Federation of New York Executive Director Jack Riffle said, "Farmers' markets, farmers, and New Yorkers who rely on food assistance programs are grateful for Governor Hochul's emergency expansion of the FreshConnect program. As a Federation, we were left scrambling to support markets and shoppers during the federal government's shutdown and the uncertainty around SNAP benefit distribution. The FreshConnect Emergency Response Checks will make a meaningful difference for shoppers in need of food assistance, helping them access nutritious food while also supporting New York farmers' bottom lines."

The Cooperstown Farmers' Market was started in 1991 and now features a roster of 42 weekly and rotating farmers, makers, artisans, and bakers, all located within 50 miles of Cooperstown. For more information see www.cooperstownfarmersmarket.org or call Otsego 2000, 607/547-8881. ➡
