47th Annual Winter Living Celebration at Rogers Center

Explore and enjoy all the wonderful things this time of year offers at the annual Winter Living Celebration. Both historical and modern CNY Winter Activities are showcased in this time-honored event, including exciting demonstrations, interactive crafts, and of course, horse-drawn sleigh rides! Everyone is welcome at the celebration on Saturday, February 1st from 11 am - 2 pm at Rogers Center in Sherburne. Free to the public.

In keeping with Winter Living Celebration tradition, visitors have the opportunity to view Environmental Conservation Officer and Forest Ranger demonstrations, relax by the campfire, or warm up with some hot cocoa and live music in the Rogers Visitor Center.

At the Bird Cabin, visitors can participate in fun child-focused crafts. Cornell Cooperative Extension's 4H and Grow, Cook, Serve programs will also be in attendance with even more engaging activities. Interactive live demonstrations will be presented on cross-cut sawing, ice-fishing, and fly-tying with Trout Unlimited.

This year we welcome the Oneida Indian Nation in celebration of traditional Haudenosaunee winter activities. Jessica Farmer, Cultural Programs Coordinator at the Shako:wi Cultural Center, will lead groups in basket weaving and incorporate oral storytelling traditions.

The celebration will also include the debut of the newly constructed Maple Sugar Shack, a heritage collaboration with the Chenango County Historical Society, in partnership with Clear Path for Veterans and the DCMO BOCES Carpentry program. All are invited to experience the next phase of this exciting community partnership and the interactive living history exhibit. Ribbon cutting at 11:30 am.

"Showcasing the new Sugar Shack is a dream come true," said David Carson, Friends of Rogers Executive Director. "We've been working hard for two years to make this happen, and it's time to light the fire and make some syrup."

Thanks to the Chenango Bird Club and the Rotary Club of Sherburne, food and refreshments will be available for purchase, with proceeds to benefit Friends of Rogers.

Weather permitting, free cross-country skiing and snowshoeing will be available.

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO PRIVACY

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights.

It includes The Right to Privacy.

Taxpayers have the right to expect that any IRS inquiry, examination, or enforcement action will comply with the law and be no more intrusive than necessary, and will respect all due process rights, including search and seizure protections and will provide, where applicable, a collection due process hearing.

What you can expect:

- There are limits on the amount of wages that the IRS can levy (seize) to collect tax that you owe. A portion of your wages are protected from levy. The protected amount is the equivalent to the standard deduction, plus any deductions for personal exemptions.
- The IRS can't seize certain personal items, such as necessary schoolbooks, clothing, undelivered mail and certain amounts of furniture and household items. The IRS also can't seize your primary home without court approval. It also must show there is no reasonable, alternative way to collect the tax debt from you.
- If you submit an offer to settle your tax debt, and the offer relates only to how much you owe (known as a Doubt as to Liability Offer in Compromise), you do not need to submit any financial documentation.
- The IRS should not seek intrusive and extraneous information about your lifestyle during an audit if there is no reasonable sign that you have unreported income.

During a Collection Due Process hearing, the Office of Appeals must consider whether the IRS's proposed collection action balances the need for efficient tax collection with ensuring the IRS's collection actions are no more intrusive to you than necessary.

More information about the IRS Privacy Policy is available online.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website. By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page. The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites.

If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

HOW TO CHOOSE A TAX RETURN PREPARER

If you choose to have someone prepare your tax return, choose that preparer wisely. A paid tax return preparer is primarily responsible for the overall substantive accuracy of your return and by law, is required to sign the return and include their preparer tax identification number (PTIN) on it. Although the tax return preparer always signs the return, you're ultimately responsible for the accuracy of every item reported on your return. Anyone paid to prepare tax returns for others should have a thorough understanding of tax matters and is required to have a PTIN. You may want to ask friends, co-workers, or your employer for help in selecting a competent tax return preparer.

Choose a tax return preparer you'll be able to contact in case the IRS examines your return and has questions regarding how your return was prepared. You can designate your paid tax return preparer or another third party to speak to the IRS concerning the preparation of your return, payment/refund issues, and mathematical errors. The third-party authorization checkbox on IRS tax forms gives the designated party the authority to receive and inspect returns and return information and to discuss the processing of your current tax return, including the status of refunds for one year from the original due date of your return (without regard to extensions). Exception: The third-party authorization checkbox for Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return expires three years from the date of filing. See Topic No. 312 for information on how to extend the authority to receive and inspect returns and return information to a third party using Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization.

Steps You Should Take to Find a Tax Return Preparer

Most tax return preparers are professional, honest, and provide excellent service to their clients. However, dishonest and unscrupulous tax return preparers who file false income tax returns do exist. See Make a Complaint About a Tax Return Preparer if you have been financially impacted by a tax return preparer's misconduct or improper tax preparation practices. You should always check your return for errors to avoid potential financial and legal problems.

The following points will assist you when selecting a tax return preparer:

- Be wary of tax return preparers who claim they can obtain larger refunds than others can.
- Avoid tax return preparers who base their fees on a percentage of the refund or who offer to deposit all or part of your refund into their financial accounts.
- Ensure you use a preparer with a PTIN. Paid tax return preparers must have a PTIN to prepare all or substantially all of a tax return.
- Use a reputable tax professional who enters his or her PTIN on the tax return, signs the tax return, and provides you a copy of the return (as required).
- Consider whether the individual or firm will be around for months or years after filing the return to answer questions about the preparation of the tax return.
- Never sign a blank tax form.
- Check the person's credentials. Only attorneys, CPAs, and enrolled agents can represent taxpayers before the IRS in all matters, including audits, collections, and appeals. Other tax return preparers who participate in the IRS Annual Filing Season Program have limited practice rights to represent taxpayers for audits of returns they prepared and signed. See Annual Filing Season Program for more information.
