MEDICARE REMINDER

Outpatient physical, speech, and occupational therapy Medicare Part B covers medically necessary outpatient therapy services, including:

- Physical therapy
- Speech-language pathology services
- Occupational therapy

If you meet Medicare’s eligibility requirements, Medicare covers therapy on a temporary basis to improve or restore your ability to function, or on an ongoing basis to prevent you from getting worse. Medicare should cover your outpatient therapy regardless of whether your condition is temporary or chronic.

Eligibility - You are eligible for Medicare coverage of outpatient therapy services if:

- You need skilled therapy services, and the services are considered safe and effective treatment for you
- Medicare defines skilled care as care that must be performed by a skilled professional, or under their supervision
- Your doctor or therapist creates a plan of care before you start receiving services
- Your doctor or therapist regularly reviews the plan of care and makes changes as needed

You can get therapy services in a doctor’s office, outpatient hospital setting, rehabilitation agency, Comprehensive Outpatient Rehabilitation Facility (CORF), public health agency, or your home. You can also get therapy while at a skilled nursing facility (SNF) or through a home health agency. However, you may need to meet additional eligibility requirements to receive Medicare SNF or home health coverage.

Costs - Original Medicare covers outpatient therapy at 80% of the Medicare-approved amount. When you receive services from a participating provider, you pay a 20% coinsurance after you meet your Part B deductible ($257 in 2025).

Did you know? ... A flock of crows is called a “murder,” while a group of owls is a “parliament.”

Thought for the Week: Don’t ruin a new day by thinking about yesterday. Let it go.

49th ANNUAL “FALL ANTIQUES IN SCHOHARIE” (September 27 & 28, 2025)

The plans are set, the dealers are signing up and we are excited to be back at the Schoharie Valley Railroad Complex on Depot Lane in Schoharie Village. On the weekend of September 27 and 28, Schoharie Colonial Heritage Association (SCHA) will once again be hosting our annual Fall Antique Show.

Antique dealers from Connecticut, Vermont, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and New York will be bringing their treasures. Visitors will find quilts and blankets, jewelry, antique furniture, stoneware, oriental rugs, glass and china, baskets and bowls and collectibles of every kind. Special heritage crafters have also been invited—the broom maker, the blacksmith, the candle maker, the potter, the candy lady and more.

The Schoharie Valley Railroad Complex backdrop is certainly one of the most unique to visitors. The Railroad Museum’s 1865 Station House and 1891 passenger car of the Middleburgh & Schoharie Railroad will be open to the public all weekend. The freight shed, which houses all kinds of railroad memorabilia, including a restored 1917 Delaware & Hudson Railway caboose, will also be open to show-goers. The volunteers of SCHA are most anxious to present yet another special show for all. Our buildings and grounds will be filled with quality dealers who show and sell quality treasures from our past.

The cooks of SCHA have put together another scrumptious selection of lunch items with our famous homemade desserts for you to come and enjoy great food under our picnic tent.

Proceeds from the antique shows fund the ongoing historic activities of the Schoharie Colonial Heritage Association. Mark your calendar: Saturday, September 27 from 10-5 and Sunday, September 28 from 11-4. There is plenty of free parking. For further information call 518-295-7505 or show manager, Ruth Anne Wilkinson, at 518-231-7241. ➡
