I'LL MEET YOU AT THE CORNER!

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

Elwood & Tuller, Corner of Lake and Main St., Richfield Springs NY.
(Tuller & Sons, Maytag, Forman's, Park View Liquor Store.)
Richfield Springs Historical Association

If you were on the road through the center of this area in 1839 in what was called by some, Brimstone Swamp, you might have stopped at the general store of Augustus R. Elwood. Though small, the store served the public for all their needs. In 1858, this building was moved back and turned to face what is now Lake Street, and a two-story building was added to face the Main Street. This addition became the main store. For many years the floor of the older building remained at a higher level. This was the section where groceries were sold. There was a loading platform at the rear for delivery wagons. In the front part, dress good, household furnishings, linens, laces and sewing goods were displayed and mail was delivered.

Mr. Elwood was born in Richfield in 1819 and when he entered the business world at the age of twenty, he started on a varied record of serving his community and country. Aside from his business, he also served as Deputy Sheriff of Otsego County in 1849; Postmaster at Richfield Springs from 1842-1848; County Clerk from 1859-1861 and County Supervisor from 1865-1868. He also served for four years as the local Justice of the Peace and was in charge of the choir at the Universalist Church for more than forty years. The year 1855 found him as a delegate to the Saratoga Convention where he assisted in the organization of the Republican party. He was elected to the State Senate from the 20th District of New York in 1869.

Ownership of the general store shifted somewhat over the years. Morgan Bryan, who had clerked for Mr. Elwood, became a partner in the firm to be called Elwood and Bryan. In 1867, Melvin A Tuller bought out Bryan and the firm was then known as Elwood and Tuller. In 1873 the firm established the first banking house in the village which they operated in conjunction with the store. This remained until 1882 at which time the banking interest was sold to the First National Bank which had just been organized. The name of the business changed in 1892 when Mr. Tuller took his son, Charles, into the business as M. Tuller & Son. It was later conducted by Charles for thirty-five years.

The Honorable A. R. Elwood was described as an energetic man who was of genial temperament and kindly disposition. Unfortunately, he came to a tragic ending in 1881 when he was a member of the firm of Walter Electric Burglar Alarm Company and was assisting in putting in an electric annunciator (signal board) in the American Hotel rooms. He was testing the wires from room to room on the ground floor, opening the doors with a pass key. The previous day he had cautioned people regarding a door that had led to a stairway that was no longer there and had locked the door and placed a sawhorse in front of it.

It was assumed that on the testing day as Mr. Elwood was concentrating on the work to be done, his mind wandered as he took the sawhorse and moved it to one side. He unlocked the door and stepped through, forgetting about the hazard of the missing stairs and fell headlong to the basement.

At his funeral, the respect held by all who knew him was shown by the attendance of people not only from this village and surrounding areas, but those who were summer visitors as well. The many elaborate flower tributes also showed the love for him. Among them was a display in the shape of a harp which symbolized the harmony which he sought throughout his life to maintain and a crown which was the emblem of the honors he achieve and the joys he brought to others.

His partner, Melvin Tuller (1838-1909), was born and educated at Richfield and began his mercantile business at the age of seventeen. At twenty-one he was proprietor of a drug store that was located on the site of the old Davenport House (torn down in 1891 and replaced by Earlington Park). He had acquired a half-interest in the general store known for years as Elwood and Tuller's, located at the corner of Main and Lake Streets which was to become known as Tuller's Corner. From the time of Elwood's death, the firm remained unchanged until 1893 when Tuller's son, Charles M. joined him in the business and the firm became known as M. Tuller & Son.

Melvin Tuller was known as a man of good business sense and judgement, He served his community by being on the Village Board when the water system was reconstructed (the Village was incorporated in 1861); the Board of Education when the Union school (Bronner Street - 1886) was erected; on the board of the Lake View Cemetery, and as a board member and treasurer of the Universalist Church. He was a man who was described as being of good nature and was held in high esteem, he seemed to have followed in his father's footsteps as Henry Tuller was considered one of the town's pioneers by building the Tuller House, one of the best known hotels of its day. Melvin lived peacefully and quietly, showing his love and concern for those around him.

Charles M., Tuller carried on the corner business until Mr., and Mrs. Clifford Forman came to Richfield in 1944 from Cherry Valley where they had conducted a clothing store. They opened a store adjacent to Tuller's for about a year and a half before buying the corner store. They held a grand opening of their new clothing store in December of 1946, having a record of over 4000 purchases made during a three-day period. In 1963, they announced their closing. Other businesses have continued their trade at this location with the building currently occupied by Park View Liquors.

Augustus Elwood saw a need for his services and provided them in a building that is still a cornerstone of the business district one hundred and eighty-six years later.

THANKS FOR YOUR VOTE OF CONFIDENCE!
 While campaigning for the general election, I listened to your concerns and clearly stated my intentions for representing you, the residents of the Village of Richfield Springs as well as the Town of Richfield.
 I feel strongly that bi-partnership-- to find common ground with ALL members on the Town Board—is key for this position. I truly trust that all of us on the Town Board will continue to come together to accomplish this!
 Be assured that I will always take my position on the Town Board very seriously and will put my business expertise and people skills to work for you—those that voted for me and for those who did not. I will continue be a voice for all.
Reminder: Town Board meetings are the third Monday of each month 7 PM at the Town Hall on James Street. Please come to be informed about Town and Village issues facing the Board each month. We welcome your input!
 With Gratitude

DANGER

ZONE

Every year, accidental poisonings result in the deaths of too many young children. Often, everyday household cleaning products and chemicals are the cause. Take these steps to protect your child against accidental poisoning.

Poison Prevention Guidelines for Household and Chemical Products

- Keep chemicals and household products out of the sight and reach of children.
- Buy household products in child-resistant containers and keep products in their original packaging.
- Store food and household products in separate areas.
- Don't allow distractions to prevent you from being watchful when using household chemicals.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of an individual or online and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $4-6K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.
