HOW TO BOOST THE VILLAGE

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

The year was 1934 and the country was still in the throes of the Great Depression which lasted from 1924-1939. The stock market had crashed in 1929 and the banking panic in the early 1930s was still being felt. That did not mean that the local people had given up on improvements to their homes and village.

In 1934, the Businessmen's Association changed their name to The Chamber of Commerce and created a new organization of business and professionals in the community. They decided to hold a contest for the purpose of 'securing constructive suggestions for the improvement of Richfield Springs'. The submission of letters with suggestions was requested and the two winning letters were published in the MERCURY, the first being from Edward D. Baker and the second letter being submitted as anonymous. Since both were chosen, the prize of $5.00 was split between Mr. Baker and Earl Jones, who had submitted the anonymous letter.

Mr. Baker's letter, in part, began: "In this time of depression, with money scarce for paint and needed repairs of our dwellings, no one thing would add more to the improvement of the appearance of the village than, in some way, creating a desire on the part of the residents to keep their premises neat. This might be started by having a contest and giving a small prize for the best-kept lawn for the whole village, or the village might be divided up in sections. The prize might be given for the person making the greatest improvement in his yard during a certain time. Another way of promoting interest in their places might be in forming a lawn improvement association with newspaper notices, lectures, etc. The problem of the vacant places, especially on Main Street, would perhaps be the hardest and one of the most necessary to solve as such places are the ones that detract from the general appearance and do nothing to create a desire in the people to keep their premises neat and attractive."

The anonymous letter began: "If there if nothing unusual about a small town, a person passing through pays little or no attention to it and as soon as he is outside its limits, he has forgotten it. If, on the other hand, there is something to awaken his appreciation and love of beauty, he remembers that particular town. When he looks back over this trip, he recalls small incidents, small things that caught his eye, and if a certain town had one unusual feature about it, he remembers it and perhaps says to himself, 'I must go back there sometime.'

Richfield Springs is noted for its sulphur springs. A tourist passing through may remember the fountain on the main street (D. A. R. Fountain dedicated in 1932) but, after all, nearly every town has some statue or monument in its possession and ours is only one of many. We need something different. Suppose that the townspeople of Richfield Springs should decided that they wanted this village to be remembered as an unusually attractive place, a town that people would like to revisit. There would be many ways of going about this, but in my opinion a good start would be to establish something that would attract attention.

My suggestion for this 'something' is the lighting of the water spray on the reservoir on top of Wilder's Hill and the dedication of this to the late Honorable Allen J. Bloomfield, as a symbol of perpetual life and service. This fountain is visible from the top of Pray Hill and from any surrounding points, even as far away as the other side of Schuyler Lake. Beautiful as it is at present, you can well imagine what it would be like if, on coming over the brink of Pray Hill, you should see this beautiful colored spray rising in the distance. It would assuredly be something that everyone who saw it would remember for a long time to come.

In addition to lighting this spray, I think it only fitting that we show our appreciation for the splendid services the late Hon. Bloomfield has rendered to this village. A marker, with a small light above could be placed near this fountain so that all might read and remember, not only the Village of Richfield Springs, but in addition, the name of the Honorable Allen J. Bloomfield."

This suggestion was something that was already being considered by the group. The Chamber committee was also discussing other steps that would be necessary to bring additional income to the village by making it more appealing for visitors. They focused on summer hotel and bath house patronage and seeking suitable tenants for the abandoned knitting mill property. (The building had been vacant a few years prior to 1936 when the plant was purchased by the Shurkatch Fishing Tackle Company.)

Residents of the village were in agreement that it would be an appropriate and lasting way to honor a man who served his community so well for so many years by dedicating the fountain that had been erected in the center of the Village Reservoir to Mr. Bloomfield. It was dedicated in 1935 as not only a beautiful tribute but also a reminder to all who viewed the fountain of the love, friendship and constructive citizenship on which Mr. Bloomfield had built his life.

Born in 1883, the Honorable Allen J. Bloomfield, son of Charles and Elizabeth McCredy Bloomfield, was a graduate of the Richfield Springs school and Columbia University where he was a stellar baseball player. He became a member of the New York State Assembly 1915-1920 and the State Senate 1921-1924. At the time of his death in 1932, he was a member of the Republican State Committee and President of the Village of Richfield Springs. Very active in local civic activities, he was also the owner of the Bloomfield Hotel (former Earlington Hotel on Main Street.)

By 2017, after eighty-two years of use, the fountain and lights were in need of refurbishing. Because of its historical nature, the restoration was accomplished using some of the original round stones, bringing the fountain base back to its original beauty. New LED lights were added. The Richfield Springs Garden Club continues to bring added beauty to the area with their plantings.

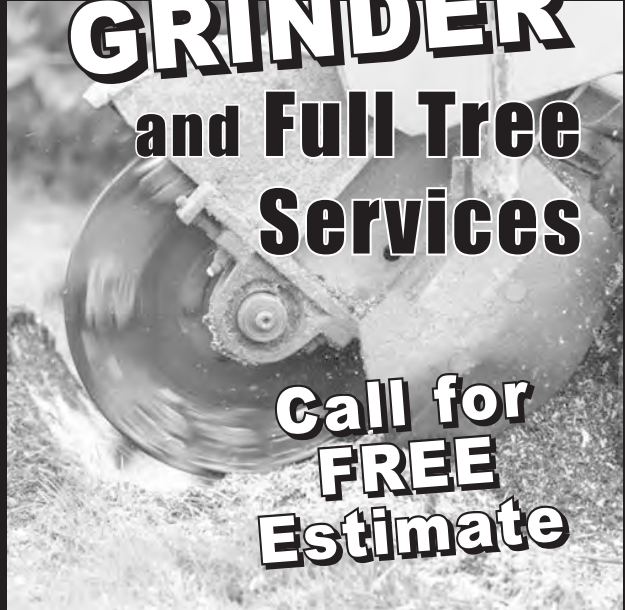

The fountain has indeed accomplish the goal of creating not only a lasting tribute to a beloved citizen, but a focal point that has been a memorable attraction to those visiting the village as well as a lasting tribute by residents then, now and for the future.

Johnny Cash once rides the rails for the October meeting of the Utica and Mohawk Valley Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society as presented by Chapter President Harry Lenz

The Utica and Mohawk Valley Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society will meet on Friday, October 10, 2025 at 7:00pm, at the Zion Lutheran Church on French Road in the Town of New Hartford, NY. There will be a business portion conducted by President Harry Lenz with reports on the restoration of the Schuyler Street Switch Tower, New York Central 6721, Christmas on Main Street, the Central New York Chapter of the NRHS Model Train Fair at the New York State Fair Grounds in Syracuse, NY, the Adirondack Railroad along with many other activities and projects ahead for us in the coming weeks and months.

After the break, Harry Lenz will show the DVD Johnny Cash's Ridin' The Rails: The Great American Railroad Story. This program was first aired back in 1974 on CBS television. Country Music Legend Johnny Cash tells the story of the coming of the railroads and how they changed American transportation forever. It features everything from the Tom Thumb steam locomotive racing a horse drawn railroad car in Baltimore, MD, the driving of the Golden Spike in Utah, train robbers, robber barons who rode in luxury only to lose what they had, along with many more features this great television special had to offer back when it first aired in 1974. This meeting is open to anyone who is interested in railroads, Johnny Cash, great country music, and railroad history. We invite guests who attend our meeting the opportunity to join the Utica and Mohawk Valley Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society as regular members. We would also like to invite all active and retired railroad personnel to our meeting as well.
